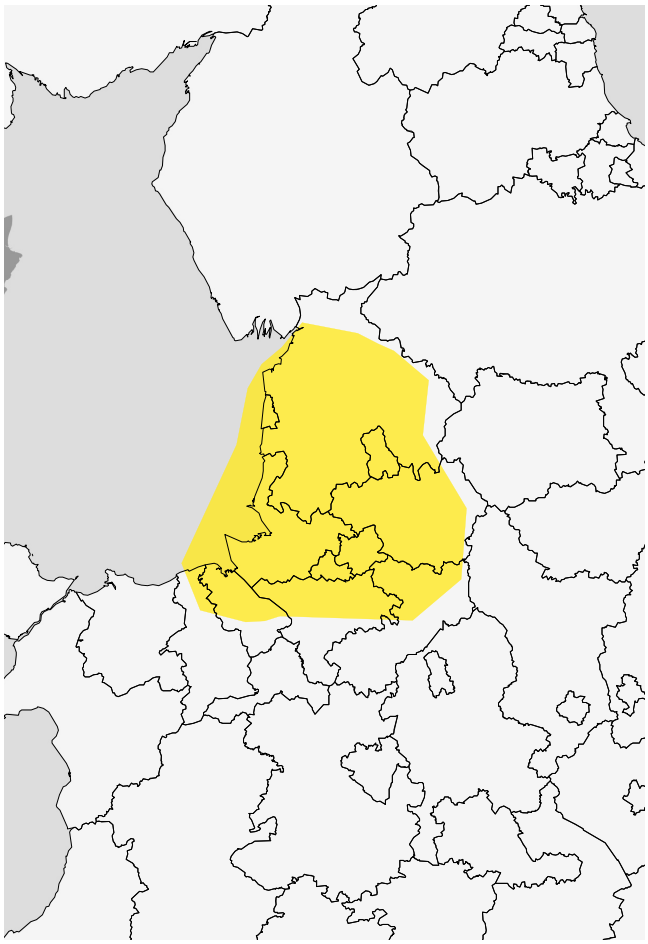
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
18:00 Mon 12 Aug 2019 and
10:00 Tue 13 Aug 2019



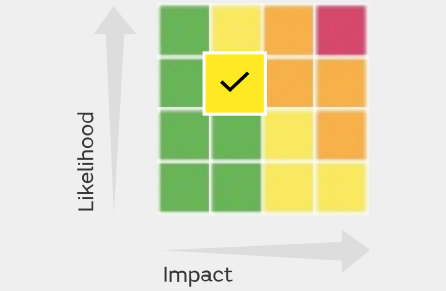
Heavy rain may lead to some flooding and travel disruption

What to expect

- Flooding of a few homes and businesses is likely
- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer

Further details

Heavy showers are likely to develop over the Irish Sea and move into parts of northwest England and northeast Wales through the evening and overnight. There is the potential for these to form into bands such that some locations could see heavy rain for several hours and perhaps 30-40 mm of rain, while other areas remain largely dry. The greatest risk of larger amounts of rain is across the Merseyside and Lancashire coasts.



Medium likelihood of low impacts
